The Nashville American!

At no time in the South's history has a well-informed newspaper, issued from a commanding point of observation for the collection and distribution of early intelligence been more an indispensability to southern households than now.

The efforts of the managers of the American to maintain its standard as the best political, commercial, and family newspaper in the Southern States will in no particular be relaxed, for the ensuing year, and many improvements are contemplated. For the past six years its expenditures have not been less than ten thousand dollars per annum. No other newspaper South of the Ohlo River has expended as much for telegraphic services. It appears regularly every day throughout the year, including holidays, and its office is never closed.

The Weekly American made up of the cannot the news of the seven daily issues of the week will contain the full volume of the graphic dispatches and market quotes tions on the day of publication. It will be sent postage paid to any address for one dolar a year, seventy-five cents for six months and forty cents for three months.
